The proposed settlement cannot work. Why do they have the chance to be anti-competitive, dump crap equipment and software on our children and schools at an inflated valuation, and come out smelling like roses? If I was found guilty by the you, I seriously doubt I could say my old 2-button mouse was worth more than a laugh towards a settlement. It is your DUTY to be consistent. You need to ask yourself if you would treat an individual defendant the same way you would treat a corporation.
